

SPECTACULAR-OCULAR

Spectacular Ocular was founded and run by a one-man development team in the form of Tim Wildgoose.

Tims primary job has been working in the film industry for the last 25 years as a concept artist, designer and HOD of weapon and prop manufacturing departments. He has worked on 50+ movies and tv shows including working for on various Star Wars projects for Lucasfilm, Marvel films and many more, as well as directing his own short films.

Tim set up Spectacular-Ocular in 2010 to develop VR film tie-in experiences, games and a film-based art-department XR application. It is currently in full development of BOMBARD!
